Halloween at the Historic University Theater

SEATTLE, WA – Celebrate Halloween weekend at the Historic University Theater with THREE GREAT COMEDY SHOWS! You may be too old to trick-or-treat, but you're never too old to enjoy Halloween-themed comedy.

Jet City Improv's Last Show on Earth

Friday, October 31st - 10:30PM - $10

Everyone knows that the zombie apocalypse has nearly wiped the earth clean. Jet City Improv is asking all remaining survivors to take refuge at the Historic University Theater to enjoy some light-hearted comedy. Jet City Improv's unique form of audience participation comedy has been delighting audiences of all-ages in Seattle for sixteen years now. So let's hope this isn't Jet City Improv's Last Show on Earth.

Dead City Improv

Saturday, November 1st - 10:30PM - $10

Uh oh. The zombie's may have gotten to the performers of Jet City Improv. One wonders what a comedy show performed by zombies would be like...

Twisted Flicks: Horror Express

Thursday, Friday, Saturday (Oct. 30, 31, Nov. 1) - 8:00PM - $10

Twisted Flicks, America's only dubbed B-movie show, began Halloween weekend in 1997 with Creature from the Black Lagoon. This year, Twisted Flicks celebrates its 11th Anniversary with Twisted Flicks: Horror Express.

The movie Horror Express (1973) features Star Wars' Christopher Lee (Count Dooku) and Peter Cushing (Grand Moff Tarkin). Both are on-board a trans-Siberian train where a thawed alien(slash)caveman begins slaughtering passengers. Who comes to save the day? It's Telly Savalas, of course, as the womanizing Cossack, Captain Kazan. Could this movie get any better? Yup, because Jet City's comedians will provide all new dialogue and a live soundtrack for Twisted Flicks: Horror Express.

Jet City Improv's Last Show on Earth, Dead City Improv and Twisted Flicks: Horror Express are all performed at the Historic University Theater, located at 5510 University Way. All performances are brought to you by Wing-It Productions, purveyors of the finest comedy shows in Seattle. For more information on any of Wing-It's shows, please visit the following websites:
